A Refreshing Touch

Described as the land's end of India or the point where the three seas meet, enchanting Kanyakumari or Cape Comorin is one of the most popular tourist spots in the country. Kanyakumari is famous for its spectacular sunrises and sunsets, especially on a full moon day. The fact that it is located at the confluence of the Bay of Bengal, the Arabian Sea and the Indian Ocean makes Kanyakumari a unique location. Kanyakumari has been a great centre for art and religion for centuries.

The SPARSA Hotel built on three acres of land is ideally situated overlooking the merger of the Arabian Sea and the Bay of Bengal into the Indian Ocean.

SPARSA hotel consists of 46 Double bed rooms and two luxury suites, Auroma - Multi-cuisine restaurant, Lands End - a well equipped bar, conference facilities, Health club cum Massage centre, Indoor and outdoor games areas like Tennis court, Pool Table, Children's play area, In house Travel desk, Business center with

Wi-Fi connectivity, swimming pools and wide spread lawns all located within the Hotel Complex. The rooms at Sparsa, KanyaKumari have been designed to offer the guests a view of the Bay of Bengal from the eastern wing, the Arabian Sea from the western wing and a breathtaking view of the two seas flowing into the Indian Ocean from the southern Wing.

One of the unique features of the hotel is that all the rooms are laid with photo catalytic tiles coated with Titanium oxide which reduces airborne pollutants and organic material like bacteria by around 70 per cent depending on the atmospheric and light conditions. The hotel opened in Nov. 2008 has already established itself as the best hotel in KanyaKumari and played Host to several VIP guests including Amitabh Bachchan - Film star and U.N ambassador of India and many more dignitaries in the recent past.
